DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 08/16/2006 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

3. Claims 1, 2, 5, 6, 9, 10 and 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by U.S. Patent No. 6,264,366 to Custer (previously cited).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 13 and 14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Custer. and Ishizaki (European Patent Application No. 0 941 937 A1, cited by applicant).

Custer discloses the claimed device except for the slider having a blade. Ishizaki discloses that it is known in the art to provide a blade 16 with a sloping leading face on the slider of an analogous bag. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide the slider of Custer with the blade of Ishizaki, in order to cut the tamper-evident label.

6. Claims 1-3, 5, 6, 9, 10 and 12-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Ishizaki and Custer.

Ishizaki discloses the claimed invention except that Ishizaki shows the marker strip being a separate material fixed to both walls of the bag instead of the marker strip being made integrally with one wall and adhesively secured to the opposite wall. Custer shows that a marker strip made integrally with one wall and adhesively secured to the opposite wall is an equivalent structure known in the art. Therefore, because these two tamper evident means were art-recognized equivalents at the time the invention was made, one of ordinary skill in the art would have found it obvious to substitute the separate marker strip fixed to both walls of the bag for a marker strip made integrally with one wall and adhesively secured to the opposite wall.

Regarding claim 12, Ishizaki discloses the claimed device, as discussed above, except for the marker strip having a precut line. Custer teaches that it is known in the art provide an analogous marker strip with a precut line. It would have been obvious to person having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide the marker strip of Ishizaki with the precut line of Custer, in order to facilitate opening the marker strip.

Allowable Subject Matter

7. Claims 4 and 11 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

8. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-6 and 9-14 have been considered but are moot in view of the new grounds of rejection.

Conclusion

9. Applicant is duly reminded that a complete response must satisfy the requirements of 37 C.F. R. 1.111, including: "The reply must present arguments pointing out the specific distinctions believed to render the claims, including any newly presented claims, patentable over any applied references. A general allegation that the claims "define a patentable invention" without specifically pointing out how the language of the claims patentably distinguishes them from the references does not comply with the requirements of this section. Moreover, "The prompt development of a clear Issue requires that the replies of the applicant meet the objections to and rejections of the claims." Applicant should also specifically point out the support for any amendments made to the disclosure. See MPEP 2163.06 II(A), MPEP 2163.06 and MPEP 714.02. The "disclosure" includes the claims, the specification and the drawings.
